

Comments: Physical Therapist Assistant students can sit for licensure in any state if they have graduated from an accredited PTA program. RCCC's PTA Program is in the accreditation process. Once fully accredited, that means we will meet all requirements for our graduates to sit for licensure in any state.