

2022-2023 Available Work Study Positions

Job Title/Department	Description	Location	Supervisor
Student Life	Applicant must have completed their FAFSA for the academic year and be eligible for work study. This position will require students to assist with duties such as: tracking attendance at events, promoting college events, helping to setup and breakdown events, creating presentations and presenting to classes or groups of students, helping to brainstorm and create programming and events, and other duties as assigned.	North and South Campus	Barb Meidl
Student Life (Media)	Applicants must have completed their FAFSA for the academic year and be eligible for Work Study. This position will require students to assist with duties such as: managing the content and production of a Student Government/Life Podcast, including basic editing, promoting, and creating content for the Student Life publication in The Achiever; and creating and sharing content through social media and BlackBoard. Other duties as assigned.	North and south Campus	Barb Meidl
The Legacy School	Applicants must have completed their FAFSA and be eligible for work study. Applicants must possess the ability to multi-task, prioritize, and communicate openly. Position will serve as a reading buddy at the Legacy School.	The Legacy School (315 Webb Rd. Salisbury, NC 28147)	Michelle Stevenson
RCCC Library	Applicants must have completed their FAFSA for the academic year and be eligible for Work Study. Candidate will provide frontline customer service to library patrons who walk in or call the library; answer general questions about the library and resources; check books in and out; shelve books; assist with displays, programs and events; scan photos in the archives; make copies; and perform other general office duties.	North Campus	Lisa Shores